

NOVEMBER READING BINGO

after cleaning my room	while snuggling in bed	with everyone in my family	on a Monday	about hibernation out loud in front of the mirror	under the covers with a flashlight	after dinner	while hugging a teddy bear (Hug A Bear Day is November 7th)	on a Thursday about Remembrance Day	on a Tuesday		while wearing a hat	before breakfast with no electronics on	about a sport	on a Wednesday	on a blanket	a book with more than 20 pages on a Friday	about something that makes me curious	in the kitchen	in the car	by a Canadian author
